In accordance with section 54(4) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015, the Organisation has taken the following steps to ensure that modern slavery is not taking place:

- We are committed to the prevention of all forms of Modern Slavery, both in our business and our supply chains.
- We make enquiries with our suppliers and contractors to ensure that they comply not only with our quality standards, but also with our values and ethics.
- We make these enquiries at the outset of a new supplier or contract relationship.
- We also regularly monitor our supply and customer markets for hints of modern slavery and human trafficking.
- It is our firm policy to question relevant suppliers and contractors, if pricing levels raise the suspicion that full and legal fair labour costs have not been factored in to any quotes or pricing.
- We have a zero-tolerance policy in relation to modern slavery and it is consequently our policy to discontinue the business relationship, should a supplier or contractor be found to be involved in activities or processes that amount to modern slavery.
- We conduct our business fairly, ethically and with respect to fundamental human rights.
- We have a Modern Slavery Policy which must be read and complied with if by people that work for, or on behalf of Kammac in any capacity including as: an employee, director, officer, worker, consultant, volunteer, supplier or service provider.
